Members of the Society who know of bibliographies that deserve inclusion in the B.C.B. should contact their local correspondent or write directly to the B.C.B. Committee, National Library of Canada, Ottawa. Present plans call for the inclusion of periodical indexes and union lists as well as check lists and bibliographies, but publishers' catalogues will not be included unless their listings are bibliographically accurate and limited to Canadiana. Suggestions about what should be included or excluded will be gratefully received by the B.C.B. Committee.

1959 ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY

The 1959 Annual Meeting of the Bibliographical Society of Canada will be held on Monday, June 22, 1959, at the University of Alberta, Edmonton. The speaker will be Dr. L.G. Thomas of the Department of History, University of Alberta.

CANADIANA COLLECTION OF THE LATE THOMAS MURRAY

This large collection of Canadian books has been purchased by the Friends of the University of British Columbia and presented to the Library. Only a part of the collection, shipped in 300 cartons and weighing ten tons, has been catalogued to date.

(Feliciter, November, 1958)

Information on other Canadiana collections will be found in a well-documented article by Sheila A. Egoff, A. Pamela Hardisty and Flora E. Patterson, entitled "Canadiana Collections," in the Canadian Library Association Bulletin, vol. XV, no 4 (January 1959), pp. 137-143.

CANADIAN CATALOGUE OF BOOKS 1791-1897

Willet Ricketson Haight, employed in the publishing business in Toronto, issued his Canadian Catalogue of Books for the years 1791-1895 in 1896, later adding two annual Supplements for the years 1896 and 1897. A complete one-volume facsimile edition of this famous work is now in preparation; it will be limited to 1,000 copies, and will sell for about $27.00 a copy.

CANADIAN BOOK-PRICES CURRENT 1950-1955

This Canadian version of Book Prices Current lists almost 5,000 books sold or for sale during the five-year period indicated. Compiled by Robert M. Hamilton, Assistant Librarian, Library of Parliament, it includes an introduction by W. Kaye Lamb, Toronto, McClelland and Stewart, 1957. Vol. I, x, 158 p. $10.00.

CANADIANA 1867-1900

Work on this bibliography has been progressing steadily; the 12,000 item mark has been reached. The bibliography includes printed material introduced in Canada or of Canadian authorship or subject.

The following categories are omitted:

Newspapers, periodicals, or parts thereof, (except separately published reprints or offprints);

School manuals or textbooks, (except those dealing with the history of Canada);
Advertising and commercial printed matter;
Sheet music, programmes, invitations;
Directories, yearbooks, time tables, serials, annual reports;
Maps and prints;
Items already indexed or listed in special bibliographies, e.g. publications on the Arctic, contributions to Royal Society of Canada;
Law reports, and digests of cases;
Government publications such as sessional papers, statutes, debates.

Anything deemed to relate sufficiently to Canadian affairs, history, natural resources, immigration and colonization, is listed regardless of its size or place of publication. As far as possible, each entry has author identification, complete description, collation, notes and references to previous or subsequent editions. The L.C. card number when available is also indicated.

A broad subject arrangement is planned, with author index. Classes of the Decimal Classification so far leading in number of items are: religion, political speeches, railroads, description and travels, and Canadian history. Each item will be numbered, and publication in sections is contemplated.

National Library of Canada.
